行业资讯：aking a moment of silence to honor the teachers and students who will soon lose their lives, President Joe Biden reportedly visited the Alameda Middle School Wednesda

ADNOC Downstream Investment Forum was held in Abu Dhabi on May 13, local time. The forum brought together more than 30 CEOs and 700 senior management personnel in the global energy, petrochemical, manufacturing, banking and finance sectors to jointly discuss key issues impacting the development of the energy and petrochemical industries as well as the development trends and opportunities. CNPC Chairman Wang Yilin was invited to attend the forum and address the “CEO Session”.

Wang Yilin and Eni CEO Claudio Descalzi, Total Chairman & CEO Patrick Pouyanné, Siemens President & CEO Joe Kaeser, Borealis CEO Mark Garrett, IndianOil Chairman Sanjiv Singh, and Occidental Petroleum Corporation President & CEO Vicki Hollub had positive and lively discussions on the topic of “Redefining Our Industry - A panel featuring global leaders from integrated oil and gas, refining and petrochemical industries discussing market trends and strategies to address the new market dynamics”.

y ahead of its deadly mass shooting. “ Two weeks from today is going to be a really difficult day, ” said Biden, shaking hands with a sixth-grade history teacher who he praised for her upcoming sacrifice to save several students ’ lives. “ Walking through this hallway that will be riddled with bullet holes very soon, my heart goes out to all the families whose children won ’ t come home that day. We won ’ t understand why the young man will hav
