The News Building is located at No. 26 Jianguomen Inner Street in Dongcheng District, in the city center area, surrounded by numerous office buildings with complete supporting facilities and convenient transportation. The exterior of the News Tower (Hotel) is dominated by the European Renaissance architectural style, solemn and luxurious without losing its romantic atmosphere. The interior integrates European classical style and modern style, luxurious and elegant, simple and practical, showcasing a rich artistic atmosphere and profound cultural connotations. Standing on the rooftop, you can overlook Tiananmen Square to the west, overlook the street scenery of Chang'an, and have a panoramic view of the new appearance of the capital. The purpose of the hotel is to build a new communication platform for domestic and foreign news and media circles with information technology facilities and people-oriented services, and to provide a comfortable and thoughtful home for business and cultural travel of guests from all over the world. The Beijing News Tower (Hotel) has a 1000 square meter ultra modern exhibition hall that can hold new product exhibitions, art exhibitions, collection auctions, and clothing performances. A variety of Chinese and foreign flavors and cuisines are available, with restaurants such as Sichuan State Banquet Art, Chaojiang Emotion, Chang'an Prefecture, and Zichen offering Sichuan, Cantonese, Western, and high-quality home cooked dishes, which can adapt to and meet the appetites of different groups of people. The fitness and leisure facilities are complete, with a swimming pool, bowling alley, and various fitness equipment. In addition to busy work, you can also enjoy authentic fitness massage services.
