STAMFORD, CONN. (April 11, ) – Attendees turned out in force for Global Pet Expo. The American Pet Products Association (APPA) and Pet Industry Distributors Association (PIDA) hosted the pet industry’s premier international event and kickoff for trade show season on March 22-24 at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida.

“ It was thrilling to see more than 16,000 attendees across all categories of the pet industry come together for the highly anticipated Global Pet Expo . We spent three days with our peers recognizing and celebrating our collective achievements and collaborating on shared opportunities, ” said APPA President and CEO Peter Scott. “ From invaluable networking events to education sessions from some of the most reputable experts in our field and more, Global Pet Expo is more than a trade show: it ’ s where the pet care community comes to do business because it drives ROI. ”
