To celebrate the upcoming Lunar New Year, FedEx is set to assist Hong Kong customers in staying connected with their overseas clients with exclusive shipping discounts and flexible solutions.

From now to April 2024, FedEx offers local companies that set up a new account exclusive benefits, including a up to 45% off shipping discount and a HK$350 supermarket coupon. *

Additionally, FedEx provides flexible delivery solutions and digital tools to ensure businesses and customers have peace of mind throughout this busy season.

FedEx Extensive Local Retail and Global Network: FedEx has expanded its self-collection network to cover more than 600 locations in convenience stores and lockers across Hong Kong. Moreover, in addition to its robust North American and intra-Asia service networks, FedEx strategically locates 540 depots across Europe, enabling rapid delivery of customer packages from Hong Kong to major European markets in just two days.

FedEx Delivery Manager International \(FDMi\) with WhatsApp delivery notification: E-tailers using FDMi can enable their residential customers to select the timing and location of their deliveries and change the delivery address when the shipment is in transit at no extra cost. In addition, recipients expecting inbound deliveries will receive a WhatsApp notification from FedEx upon shipment pickup. They can also contact FedEx directly and access tracking statuses and re-direct options with a click of a button directly in the WhatsApp chat window.

Picture Proof of Delivery: FedEx customers in Hong Kong selecting the “no signature required” delivery option benefit from the additional service feature of receiving a photo showing the exact location of their package at their doorstep upon delivery.
