The Japan Agricultural Exhibition AGRITECH is organized by the Reed Exhibitions Group, with a duration of two sessions per year. The exhibition is expected to have a total of 42366 visitors, 1460 exhibitors, and participating brands.

AGRIWEEK, an international agricultural material exhibition in Japan, focuses on showcasing agricultural materials, products, and technologies. Initially dominated by flowers, it has evolved into a comprehensive exhibition of agricultural machinery, machinery, fertilizers, pesticides, substrates, and seedling systems.

Every year, 148 agricultural associations and 1984 representatives from various regions in Japan are attracted to come for procurement. At the same time, buyers from 47 countries and regions including Europe, the Middle East, the Americas, and Asia also came to visit, with a professional audience of 42366. Make this exhibition an annual agricultural event in Japan. Make it the leading agricultural materials and technology trade exhibition in Asia.
