Countries and regions requiring certification: At present, countries and regions requiring embassy and consulate accreditation are mainly concentrated in South America, the Middle East, Africa and other countries and regions, and other European and American countries are also joining in this ranks. The company can handle the authentication of the Hong Kong consulate of the United Arab Emirates (Dubai), the Argentine embassy, the Iraqi embassy in Beijing, the Omani consulate in Hong Kong, the Egyptian INV front, the Egyptian embassy, the Brazilian consulate, the Brazilian consulate in Hong Kong, the Ecuadorian embassy, the Colombian embassy, the Qatari embassy, the Kuwaiti embassy, the Lebanese embassy, the Saudi Arabian consulate in Hong Kong, the Turkish embassy, the Venezuelan embassy and the Indonesian embassy. Time is fast, price is reasonable and service is in place. If you have any questions, please consult. May we establish long-term cooperation! Certification process Step Some of the documents have been examined and certified by the International Chamber of Commerce of China and notary offices around the country. The Chamber of Commerce and notary offices examine and verify the seals or signatures on commercial materials. After examination, the International Chamber of Commerce and notary offices issue certificates (samples are shown in this website) or notarial certificates (samples are shown in this website), and the certificates have the signatures of notaries and the seals of the International Chamber of Commerce and notary offices. Step 2 Send documents signed by notaries of the International Chamber of Commerce or the Notary Office to the Consular Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The seal and signature of the Chamber of Commerce and the Notary Office shall be authenticated by the Consular Department's certification, and the authorized person of the Consular Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs shall sign the certified documents (Note: If the documents do not need to be sent to the embassy for certification, they will be referred to as the Ministry of Foreign Affairs single certification when the certification is completed at this step, and some national documents can be used after the Ministry of Foreign Affairs single certification) Step 3 After the documents are authenticated by the consul ar department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, they are sent to embassies or consulates of various countries for authentication. The embassies of various countries certify the seal and signature of the consular department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. (This is called embassy double authentication here) Step 4 After the embassy certification is completed, it will be forwarded in reverse according to the above order. To certified customers. How will your documents be sent to the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region for confirmation? Foreign notarial certificates sent to the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region need to go through confirmation procedures in the Consular Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, not consular certification. Please remember this point.
