About Foreign Economy and Trade

Ningbo boasts a long history. It is the birthplace of the "Neolithic He mudu Culture" dating back more than 7,000 years. Ningbo became one of the three ports for foreign trade in China as early as the 7th century. Nowadays, Ningbo-zhoushan port has become one of the most important ports in China. In 2018, Ningbo-zhoushan port topped worldwide in the light of its cargo throughput reaching 1000 million tons. Ningbo had trade with 211 countries and regions all around the world with the import and export trade volume exceeding USD 100 billion for the year 2018.
