产品详情

Dk0010 dual loop temperature and humidity controller

DK0010 series controllers are dual-loop process controllers and display instruments based on advanced microprocessor technology. They can control and display process parameters such as temperature, pressure and flow. The instrument is flexible in setting, convenient in configuration and simple in operation.

Product features

12 types of analog input signals are supported, double input channels.

Support SHT1x digital temperature and humidity sensor input

Two way position control relay output, relay closing action can set action protection time interval.

Two way alarm relay output

Two way output current output

Photoelectric isolation Modbus Communication

Selection size

Outline size: 88.38*130.38*32mm

Installation size: 130.38mm
