We should advocate the scientific thought of pursuing truth and tolerating failure. The essence of PPF Cutting Tape science and technology lies in the pursuit of truth. Doubt and criticism are the basic starting point of all innovation activities. Today's constantly open environment and constantly updated design line knowledge require us to always maintain a social and cultural atmosphere in which everyone is equal before the truth. We should abandon the impetuous mentality of being eager for quick success. We do not advocate that people should be confined in the ivory tower of PPF Cutting Tape science, but everyone who enters the palace of science should first demand himself with the spirit of science, not forget to pursue the truth, goodness and beauty of science, and should not separate or even oppose humanism from PPF Cutting Tape's scientificity. Because only by internalizing science as a part of PPF Cutting Tape can we generate enthusiasm and inspiration for PPF Cutting Tape. The soul of scientific development lies in the collision of different thoughts and cultures.

With the coming of the new economic era, the change of the external environment of the enterprise is much higher than that of the design line industrial economic era, so the strategy and organizational structure of the enterprise will be adjusted in time. Therefore, the flexibility of enterprise organizational structure will become a trend of future development of PPF Cutting Tape enterprise organizational structure. The so-called team organization form refers to an enterprise organization form in which a small number of team members commit to the common design line work objectives and tasks, and take responsibility for each other. This kind of organizational form often appears in knowledge-based enterprises. Practice has proved that this is a very suitable organization form for the modern business environment of PPF Cutting Tape enterprises, so it is highly praised and widely used. Team organization is different from traditional departments. It is consciously formed to accomplish the common tasks of PPF Cutting Tape, based on conscious information sharing and horizontal coordination. In the team, there is no manager with institutional rights, and team members are professional PPF Cutting Tape talents with multiple skills

The unity of subjective and objective is the fundamental to realize the innovation of PPF Cutting Tape. The change of objective things is inevitable and frequent, and people's ideas should also change with it. The idea belongs to the spiritual phenomenon. The design line is reflected in the subjective form, and its content is the subjective reflection of the objective things. In practice, the design line subjective form and objective reality, the market economy is a competitive economy. If an enterprise wants to survive and develop, it must have the competitive advantage of PPF Cutting Tape compared with other enterprises. The so-called competitive advantage refers to some operational characteristics of PPF Cutting Tape compared with its competitors. Facing the opportunities and challenges brought by the wave of economic globalization, enterprises should innovate their business philosophy to form a competitive advantage of PPF Cutting Tape.
